FAQs

Who will lead my expedition?

All of our expeditions are led by highly experienced local leaders. They have many years of leading expeditions in these areas and have a high level of knowledge of local wildlife and history. All of our leaders also receive appropriate First Aid training.

Where will I sleep?

Our standard package has accommodation in good quality hotels with en-suite facilities. If you want more luxury then upgrade to our Heritage Hotel option and you will stay in some of the most amazing hotels in Rajasthan.

What medical arrangements are in place?

In the event of one of our expedition members becoming ill or injured they will be evacuated to the nearest good-quality hospital. During the trip we have a back-up vehicle available to help. Any incidents will be managed by our operations staff in Asia and the UK.

Do I need my own travel insurance?

Yes. You must be covered by adequate travel insurance. Your insurance must include cover for medical expenses, injury and cost of repatriation.

Do I need a Visa?

A visa is required for all nationals and will need to be obtained prior to arrival. Passports must be valid for at least 6 months beyond the date of entry. Visa forms and details of requirements can be found at <https://indianvisaonline.gov.in>

What vaccinations do I need?

You should consult your own doctor for a check-up. Your doctor will have access to the most up to date information on the required vaccinations for the country you are visiting.

Why travel with us?

Who we are

Moonstone Expeditions specialize exclusively in trekking and cycling tours to India and Sri Lanka. From our bases in the UK and Sri Lanka we have been delivering quality adventures since 2013.

We're the India and Sri Lanka experts

Many of our staff live in the region and have developed a deep passion for its truly stunning landscape, culture and people – and we want to share that passion with you.

We're flexible

We're not like most adventure companies. Choose your own departure dates to fit your travel plans. No minimum group size– we make sure your trip goes ahead whatever the size of your group. Customise your trip – no problem, change the start or finish point or add another activity.

Adventures for everyone

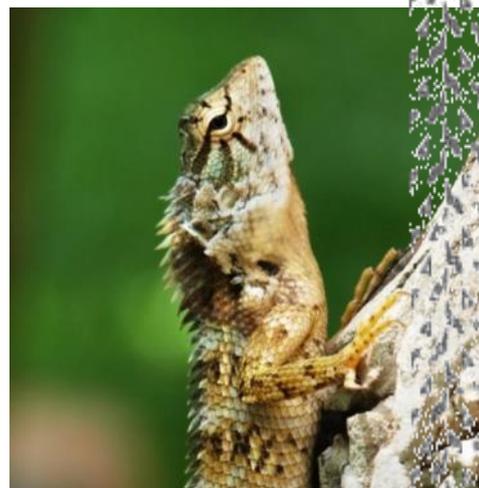

We offer adventures for all abilities. On our trips you don't need any technical skills or special equipment. We don't go anywhere too remote, too cold or too high altitude. Instead we offer accessible adventures which are off the beaten track and avoid busy tourist areas. We can provide all the equipment you need, allowing you to travel light.

We've got your safety in mind

Our Senior Management have many years' experience of planning and running adventurous expeditions worldwide and we use all of that experience when planning our trips.

Peace of mind

We're a UK registered company SC448143 and we're fully bonded in accordance with the DTI Package Travel Regulations 1992.
